

Intensive course in swedish, 27 July to 5 August 2015

Target group

The course is for Finns and Icelanders who have an interest in advancing in the Swedish language. The course is particularly suitable for those who in work , leisure or study situations requires knowledge of Swedish and Swedish culture habits.

Course content

The teaching emphasizes on oral exercises, conversation, themed lectures, reading texts and grammar. It's about 6 hours teaching per day (a total of about 52 hours) related lectures and field trips.

Preliminary program

- Guided tour of Piteå
- Piteafton, a Swedish evening
- Finlandsafton, a Finnish evening
- Lectures , field trips, cultural and business visits.

Accommodations

Framnäs offers accommodation in single rooms (two people sharing hall , toilet and shower). Sheets and towels are provided.

Cost

8500 SEK / person. The price includes teaching materials , accommodation, all meals, all recreational programs and excursions according to the course program.